Exploration—Rewards for the Discovery of Gold-Fields.

Governments almost everywhere have spent large sums on exploring expeditions. in bounties or rewards, with the object of stimulating some new branch of agriculture. developing fisheries, encouraging the growth of manufactures, or laying open to the world the mineral and agricultural resources that they possess. In new countries, up to a certain period, such a policy has generally worked advantageously. When those branches of industry called into existence by such stimulants are able to stand alone, not to say flourish, they are left dependent on their own merits-the bounties are withdrawn, Daring the last session of the Legislature of California, large sums were voted in bounties to those who would grow in the State a certain quantity of new agricultural products; and the probabilities are that the object of the Legislature will be attained. In the Eastern Provinces, as well as in the Atlantic States, bounties were once paid to those engaged in the cod-fisheries. France, we believe, still continues the bounty system—not only to foster such a branch of interference for itself but to keep up a pursery tem—not only to foster such a branch of industry for itself, but to keep up a nursery for seamen. Immense sums have been spent for exploring expeditions by the new countries of this continent, with a view to lay open the industrial resources that they possess. Nearly our whole continent has been mapped, its topography and natural history written, and volume after volume on such subjects has been printed and placed within the reach of every one. Such enterprise, such scientific explorations, have been productive of a great amount of good. within the reach of every one. Such enterprise, such scientific explorations, have been productive of a great amount of good. Hitherto little or nothing of the kind has been attempted either on this Island or in British Columbia. In 1858-9, some £1200 were spent on Major Downie, McKay, Harrison and Golledge for exploring certain parts of the sister colony. But we believe as a grand whole, the whole sum has been spent in vain. The results arising from the expenditure has been nit. The best that can be said of it is that it evidenced a disposition on the part of the government to do something to open up the country. In this colony, we have been told at the opening of the Legislature, that an exploring expedition would be sent out. The Assembly last year voted, or talked about voting £500 for that object. But there it ended. Like British Colombia, exploration has ended in nothing; but with this advantage that it cost nothing except the expense incurred by the Legislature in talking about it. Now we believe that something may be done in the way of exploration or discovery for the benefit of both colonies; and yet no risk whatever be taken by government. We mean, by offering a reward for the discovery for the bencht of both colonies; and yet mean, by offering a reward for the discovery of new gold-fields not only on this Island but in British Colombia, and Queen Charlotte's Island. In Australia such a simple and practical course has been adopted, and we are assured it has worked successfully. The gold discoveries in New Zealand has also caused the provincial government of The gold discoveries in New Zealand has also caused the provincial government of Auckland to follow the example set by the colony of Victoria. We find proof of this in late papers published there, and cute it with the hope that the example may be copied with profit here. The government of Auckland appears to be in exmest about gold discoveries, determined if possible to find what gold resources it possesses. It has consequently published the following advertisement, offering $10,000 for the discovery of a gold field on which 500 miners can make overage wages for three months:

overage wages for three months:
GOLD DISCOVERY—TWO THOUSAND POUNDS
REWARD—Superintendent's office, Auckland, March 4th, 1862. The following resolution, adopted by the Provincial Council of the Province of Auckland, is published for general information.
J. Williamson, Superintendent.
"Resolved—That an address be presented to His Honor the Superintendent requesting him to offer a reward to any person or persons who shall discover an available gold-field in the province of Auckland, and make the same known to the Provincial Government, this Council pledging itself notal Government, this Council pledging i following conditions:-1. "Claim or claims to be sent into the Provincia Government.

"2. An available gold field shall be considered to exist whenever such a quantity of gold shall be obtained from it, as shall have offered employment to not less than 500 diggers for three months at fair to not less than not diggers for three vages.

"3 All matters relating to any claim shall be referred to and decided by three commissioners, to be appointed for that purpose by and with the consent of his Executive Council.

"Commissioners' award to be made not later than nine months from the date of reception of claim."

Let any one glance over the conditions annexed to this reward, and he will perceive that there is no chance whatever for the Auckland government to lose a cent by such a transaction—no chance to be cheated by "salted" claims. Allowing that 500 men worked four days and carned $5 each perday, the whole reward would be re-paid to the colony; even if not paid back at once to the treasury. If 500 additional triners were thus employed—brought into the country—there would be at the outstart £500 paid into the treasury for hieenses at $5 a year, the rate in British Columbia. Thus a quarter of the whole would be at once paid back. If a tariff and taxes of various kinds were levied on what 500 men consumed through a year, it would double the reward, or, in other words, the government would make a hundred per cent on its outlay, the multiply wealth every year. We have occasionally urged such precedents on our government for the last four years. We do so again, with the hope that it may not be in vain. We feel satisfied that gold fields exist on this Island that pay small wages at least. We have no good reason to believe that the wages would be very large; neither should we be willing to say that "big pay" could not be found among our hilts and valleys and along our mountain streams. If small pay can be found the probabilities are that large pay may be found also. We know that gold does exist on the Island. Is it not advisable then to follow the example in this large pay may be found also. We know that gold does exist on the Island. Is it not advisable then to follow the example in this colony that has been set by Auckland? A resolution such as the above passed by our Assembly would reach the object; and, we believe, be the fruitful cause of sending prospecting parties throughout our Island. When Choquette started this year for Stickeen he had a firout provided by the government with which to prosecute his discoveries. Why then cannot the British Columbian government offer a reward for the discovery of new diggings within their own vast territor? We have repeatedly urged the adoption of such means to make known the auriferous wealth of the central, southern, and extern portions of the sister colony. No argument, in our opinion, ought to be necessary to recommend such a course. There is far less risk about it than paying in advance exploring parties of practical miners for what may result in nothing as heretofore—whereas such a prize as $10.000 would stimulate hundreds to lay bare the bosom of the country and reveal to thousands its hidden wealth. sands its hidden wealth.

Special despatches to a New York paper state that a released Union officer, who was for ten days in the hands of the rebels at Winchester, where he talked freely with their officers, says that they seemed to look forward to the destruction of their great armies as a thing sure to happen sooner or later, and they have made up their minds to take to the brush in the way of guerrilla warfare, in which they said they feel themselves at home. All officers appeared to our informant as men devoted body and soul to the cause of the rebellion, but he thought that most of the soldiers seemed not to have any heart in the business.

CATRO, June 6.—A steamer has just arrived from the flotilla on the Mississippi, bringing news of the evacuation of Fort Wright and its occupation by the Federals. From a person who visited the fort, we learn there are still 12 guns there, a part of them spiked. The buildings, filled with commissary stores, were burned, as also was the cotton of which the breastworks of the fort were constructed. The gun carriages, barracks, and every article of use, were committed to the flanes. The large mortar recently brought from the South is bursted, also another 10-inch mortar. The Times says a stubborn and protracted resistance is threatened by the South; but if place after place be abandoned, the time will come when the rest is hardly worth lighting for.

In the House of Commons, Mr. Mildmay asked what the Government intended to do in the case of the steamer Bermuda, seized by the Federal ships of war on her passage from one British colony to another. Layard replied that the Government had received information of the seizure, and the case had been referred to the law officers of the Crown. Two ships are advertised at Liverpool for New Orleans.

OPENING OF THE INTERNATIONAL EXHIBI-TION.—From English papers received via the Isthmus we have a few details of the opening of Isthmus we have a few aceaus, or the opening of the Great International Exhibition, on the 9th May, at 9 A. M. The weather, which had been wet, cleared up, and soon after the various roads leading to the building were filled with vehicles and foot passengers, the line from the Palace being kept by the Horse Guards. There was much bustle and exciement around the building, but no confusion arose. At one o'clock every spot from which a view of the approaching eeremony could be obtained was crowded. The appearance of the interior did not present the light and graceful character of the Exhibition of 1851, but the general effect was pleasing and the orchestra was very imposing, owing to the mass of singers and instruments, and the striking contrast of the male and female dresses. The Commissioners shortly proceeded to the Dais at the foot of the orchestra. The spectacle, when the Duke of Cambridge, Lord Palmerston, Price of Prussia, Prince Oscar of, Sweden, the Lord Chancellor and Archbishop of Canterbury, and the Speaker of the Commons had taken their seats on the raised Dais, was very fine—surrounded as they were by the Diplomatic Corps and a mass of persons in every color of uniform, accompanied by elegantly dressed ladies, the sun brilliantly lighting up the whole scene. Amongst the spectators were the Japanese Ambassadors. The music and choruses were very finely executed, but the effect, owing no doubt to the character of the building, was not so grand as had been anticipated, and the sound appeared lost. The ceremony terminated at 5 o'clock, and the Duke of Cambridge declared the exhibition opened. The procession then reformed and proceeded to the Picture Gallery, after inspecting which the Royal party left the building. The spectators then left the nave and proceeded to the Picture Gallery, after inspecting which the Royal party left the building. The spectators then left the nave and proceeded to we result of the procession than regarded as cminently successful. The number of spectators were estimated at 30,0 the Great International Exhibition, on the 9th May, at 9 A. M. The weather, which had been

NEW ZEALANDERS IN TROUBLE. - Yesterday a letic-looking young man, for insulting him and tearing his shirt. The defendant was brought before Mr. Pemberton, and the complained to 13 to 15 which was to the effect that himself and defendant came to this country on the Lady Young from New Zealand, were good friends, and that he was at a loss to know why he had been ill he was at a loss to know why he had been ill used. The defendant stated that the old man had accused him of stealing his purse—called him a robber, &c., and that all he had done was to take him by the shirt and advise him to go to the Police Court for a warrantif he thought he had taken the money. The purse was afterwards found where the old man had himself hidden it while drunk. The complainant indignantly repudiated the charge of having been drunk, and appealed to several friends in court to come forward and prove his sobriety. Nobody came forward, however, to say anything in his behalf, and the charge was dismissed and the old man ordered to pay the costs.

IN A BAP FIX.—A respectable-looking middle-aged man, giving the name of George Collis, appeared in the Police Court yesterday morning to answer a charge of robbery, in having stolen a number of knives and forks and a checker-board, valued in all at about $1, from Messrs, Morrais and Clink, of Waddington alley. It seems that and Clink, of Waddington alley. It seems that Collis, who came on the last steamer from England, went into Clink's stupidly drunk, and was charitably allowed to sleep in the saloon for the night. In the morning, however, he arose early, and gathering together the iktas above alluded to made off down Johnson street, where he was caught by officer Levy, and taken to the lock-up. Collis declared that he knew nothing about the affair, and the officer said that he acted as if attacked with the "horrors," whereupon the magistrate discharged him on payment of the costs of Court, with a recommendation that his friends look after him.

SUSPICIOUS CHARACTERS .- On Saturday night there was a row on Johnson street in which two men, named George Thompson and - Edmonds men, named George Thompson and — Edmonds figured extensively, for which they were taken into custody by Sergt. Blake, on suspicion of being bal characters. Yesterday both men proved to satisfaction of the magistrate that they had visible means of support, and were discharged. The officer, in his testimony, swore that they were in the habit, of going about town with a pack of cards and "steamboating" unwary by strangers playing clever tricks upon them.

bout sixty miners took themselves and their "kits" aboard the Enterprise with the intention of proceeding to New Westminster en route for the mines; but on learning that the fare was $3 instead of $2, as they were somehow led to believe was the case previous to embarking, a large majority backed out and returned ashore just as the steamer was cassing off. About a duzen turned a deaf ear to the advice of their comrades to "come ashore" and left on the steamer.

REPULSE OF THE FRENCH IN MEXICO .- It is nerally conceded that the French forces in Mexico have been defeated a second time by the Mexico have been defeated a second time by the Mexicaus. On the Sth May they attacked with 5,000 men a force of 15,000 or 23,000 Mexicans, near La Puebla, and were driven buck with a loss of 1,100 men. One account represented that the entire French army had surrendered, but subsequent advices say that they reached Vera Cruz in great disorder.

IN THE HEART OF THE TOWN .- An Indian occupant of one of the small shanties near the corner of Douglas and Johnson streets, died yesterday of Douglas and Johnson streets, diet yestertay morning of small pox. His body, habited in a shirt, was found reclining on a bunk with his legs hanging over. He had been ill about one week, and the remains presented a sickening appear-ance. The body was removed at noon by the Po-lice and buried in a place remote from town.

THE "SIERRA NEVADA"-Left San Francisco on the 12th inst., and arrived here at 12 o'clock yesterday, with 250 passengers and a full freight. [75 passengers are Cariboo-bound, and the re-maining 75 will go to Portland to-day. Only out 85 tons of the freight is intended for this place.

AN OLD FACE.-The honored face of John Day, a long-time habitue of the Police Court, was again seen in the dock yesterday morning, on charge of drunkenness. John pleaded guilty and was let off with a fine of five shillings.

THE STOWAWAY.-The man who stowed himse aboard the ship Lady Young, on her late voyage from New Zealand to this port, yesterday prom-ised to return to the vessel and was discharged from custody.

ERRATUM .- We yesterday stated that the steam er Thames had arrived Honolulu, from Messrs. Stamp & Co. We have since learned that, at latest advices, she had not reached there, but was daily expected.

ALL TAKEN.-No application for shares in the Chartered Bank of British Columbia and Van-ouvers Island were received after the 9th of April, on which day all the shares were taken.

SAILED -The schooner J. B. Ford, and the revenue cutter Joe Lane, sailed yesterday morning for Port Townsend. FOR STICKEEN RIVER .- The steamer Labouchere is advertised for Stickeen River via Bentinck Arm, to sail on Monday next,

NOT OF AN ECONOMICAL TURN. - Yesterday to themselves, mounted a horse in front of Zeiner's Drug Store, and essayed to ride him around the block. The animal unused to furnish a seat for more than one person at a time, (albeit there was plenty of room) and, no doubt, desirous of keeping an eye open for the interests of the livery stable keepers, and not being of an economical turn of mind, declined to carry the double load. The riders insisted and spurred him on to his work. The horse reared and kicked and the riders roared and pricked—but it was a case of "no go." The animal seemed as stubborn as a jackass and the gents a little more so. A hard struggle for the mastery ensued—a crowd collected — and after much spurring, beating and swearing, the horse suddenly raised his legs in ascientific manner, gave a loud snort, and sent the riders flying over the heads of the bystanders until they alighted on a bed of very soft macadam—one of the party falling on his head, was rendered insensible, but he had received only a slight bruise or two and soon recovered. The other me ely exchange a acat on the horse for one on the ground, resting for a few seconds on that portin of the pants which wears out first. The horse having gained the victory, quietly suffered one of the gents to mount him and ambled quietly away.

COMMERCIAL MATTERS.—Business is lively, to themselves, mounted a horse in front of Zelner's Drug Store, and essayed to ride him around COMMBRCIAL MATTERS .- Business is lively, but remittances from the sister colony continue light, with, however, every indication of a change for the better within the next formight. A sale of Golden Gate flour yesterday, by Mr. Backus, realized $9 25 per bbl.; superfine Golden Gate is alized S9 20 per bbl.; superfine Golden Gate is jobbing at $9 50 @ $9 75, and extra at $10 50 @ $11. A Protest of the French Naval Commandant.

Commander of the United States Squadron now in the Port of New Orleans,—Sir:—Sent by my Government to protect the persons and property of its citizens, who are here to the number of 30,009. I regret to learn at this moment that you have accorded a delay of 48 hours for the exacustion of the city by the women and children. I venture to observe to you that this short delay is ridiculous; and, in the name of my Government, I opposite it. If it is your resolution to bombard the city, do it; but I wish to state that you will have to account for this barbarous act to the Power which I represent. In any event, I demand sixty days for the evacuation.

GOLD IN NOVA SCOITA.—It appears that gold is found in parallel lines which are believed to extend nearly the whole length of the Province, some two hundred miles in the direction of the gold-bearing strata. The most southerly, or seaboard line embraces the auriferous strata of Wine gold-bearing strata. The most southerly of each of the board line embraces the auriferous strata of Wine Harbor, St. Mary's, Tangier, Lawrencetown, Dartmouth, Halifax, Ovens, and Lahaue. A more northerly line would touch the first diggings near the Tangier lakes, Laidlow's farm and Gold river. The most productive field yet discovered appears to be that known as "The Ovens," from which the whole amount obtained from June to December, is estimated at $120,000, which has been separated without the assistance of machinery.

The Pictou Chronicle says it is not at all probable that the richest gold deposits in Nova Scotia have not been discovered, but there is enough known to satisfy the most skeptical that the Province contains an ample amount of the precious metal to warrant the most extensive operations and the construction of machinery for its mining and purification.

THE COFFER PRODUCT.—The Stockton Independence of June 7th says that the shipment of copper ore from Copperopolis to Stockton averages 30 tons per day, at §8 per ton. The ore sells at §100 per ton. $240 per day, or $6,000 per month, would go far toward paying the running expenses of a railroad from that point, leaving wholly out of the account increase of freight and passenger travel.

PERSONAL.—The afflicted will now have an opportunity of consulting Dr J. Flattery, the highly recommended and distinguished Physician and Surgeon, from San Francisco. He will remain at the Colonial Hotel, in this city, but a few days, previous to his return to San Francisco.

The Dr. is a graduate of medicine and literary gentleman, and we certainly hazard nothing in commending him to the suffering portion of our community. He presents testimonies of the highest respectability as to his skillulness, and is provided with the latest and most improved instruments as ids to his profession. His newly invented Stethosopo for the examination of the lungs, is a most decided improvement on the old. Also, his Laryugeal speculum (a concave metallic mirror) a most valuable instrument. which prepares him to convey light disease. Sannsevain's Wine Bitters are obtaining a wide-spread celebrity in all parts of the State. It is sufficient evidence of their great merit to observe the large quanties shipped by our principal Wine Merchants to every part the large quanties shipped by our principal Wine Merchants to every part the large quanties shipped by our principal Wine Merchants to every part the large quanties of new and valuable articles, has to contend with unscruptious parties, who are introducing a spurious mixture purporting to be his Wine Bitters, which noxious compounds are put up in the same style of bottles, labels, etc., so as to pass for the Sainsevain brand. We call attention to this fact so that our citizens may be upon their guard, and that when they ask for Sainsevain's Bitters, see that they get them. As pure Wine is destined to drive from use all alcoholf decoctions, so these Bitters will soon take the place of the adulterated preparations which now flood our market Those desiring a pure and agreeable tonic should try Sainsevain's Wine Bitters or California Vermouth.
